Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC conducted an annual assessment of the Board's effectiveness as a whole and the contribution of each individual Directors in respect of the financial year ended 31 March 2022 using customised questionnaires to be completed by the Directors. The results of the self-assessment by Directors and the Board's effectiveness as a whole were tabled to the NRC and the Board for review. The criteria for Director's evaluation cover areas such as contributions to interaction, roles and responsibilities and quality of input to enhance the Board's effectiveness. For Board and Board Committee assessment, the criteria include board structure and operations, their roles and responsibilities, succession planning and board governance. The Board having studied the results of the evaluation, was generally satisfied with its current size, composition as well as the mix of skill sets and the independence of its Independent Directors.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has formalised a procedure to determine the remuneration of Directors and Senior Management. However, the procedure was not published on the Company's website. Though the remuneration framework for the Directors and Senior Management is not published, the Directors' fees and meeting allowance have been reviewed by the NRC and the Board, thereafter, recommended to the shareholders for approval. The remuneration of each Director is reviewed from time to time against market practices. The Board ensures that the level of remuneration is sufficient to attract and retain Directors needed to run the Group successfully. The component part of remuneration has been structured to link rewards to corporate and individual performance for Group Chief Executive Officer whilst Non-Executive Directors' remuneration reflects their experience and level of responsibilities.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC recommends to the Board, the policy framework and remuneration and benefits extended to the Group Managing Director and Group Chief Executive Officer. Non-Executive Directors' remuneration is a matter to be decided by the Board as a whole, with the Directors concerned abstaining from deliberation and voting in respect of their remuneration. The Terms of Reference of the NRC is available on the Company's website at www.asiabrand.com.my.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The remuneration of the individual Directors is disclosed on a named basis and breakdown into fees, salaries and other emoluments. The breakdown of the remuneration is available in the Company's 2022 Annual Report

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management is commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 8.2

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board has considered this practice and is of the opinion that the disclosure of key senior management's remuneration on a named basis would have adverse effect on the Company's talent retention in the competitive industry. All senior management's remuneration packages are based on their scope of duty and responsibilities.
		The NRC is of the view that the level of remuneration package of the senior management in respect of the financial year ended 31 March 2022 was fair and reasonable to retain and reward the talents.
		Please provide an alternative practice and explain how the alternative practice meets the intended outcome.
